This employee has been on duty for approximately twenty months at the FEIS Portland Bureau in the grade established for a trainee monitor. During the last half of this period she has been performing competently the duties described under Bu. No. F-106 for an independent and experienced monitor. During these ten months the Spanish-language staff at Portland has been placed under the strain of a greatly excessive workload, and [redacted] has successfully accomplished an equal share with monitors graded at CAP-8. Her promotion to this grade is recommended without reservation.
